

Caribbean Cuisine!

Cruise with Jonathan & Colette in the Tropics November 1 - 11, 2009 ~ Southern Caribbean

Exploring Local Markets,
Wine Pairing, Restaurant Hopping....

"What more could we ask for! Join us for a Culinary Adventure to the Caribbean! We will cook, we will indulge & we will explore together!"

Holland America Line has created an onboard Culinary Arts Center, in conjunction with Food & Wine Magazine!

The Culinary Arts Center program, presented by Food & Wine Magazine, is a groundbreaking program that integrates guests' love for fine food and wine with a unique and entertaining experience. Immerse yourself in the unique traditions and tastes of the ports of call you will visit. Sample fine wines from around the world or learn to make a new gourmet dish in a hands-on cooking class presented by Tucson's own Chef Jonathan Landeen!

EXPLORE THE CARIBBEAN - HOLLAND AMERICA STYLE!

Calypso rhythms fill the air. Warm breezes beckon. Mayan ruins, colonial cities and coral reefs beg exploration. Soft white beaches and blue lagoons promise perfect, easy sun-soaked days. And Half Moon Cay, our award winning private island, offers guests a unique and very special day in paradise. All Holland America Caribbean cruise vacations include "at sea" days sailing between destinations; these are glorious opportunities to be completely spoiled by our crew. We invite you to indulge yourself in our renowned service and the many onboard amenities designed for every age and interest.

WE HAVE SELECTED A VERY UNIQUE CARIBBEAN ITINERARY

Just when other Caribbean cruise ships are turning back, Holland America Line takes us deeper into the Caribbean, the sunny islands off the Spanish Main and the seldom visited paradises of Castries, Soufriere and Fort de France. We have decided on this Itinerary to allow us to get to some of the more exotic and less-traveled parts of the Caribbean!

ms Noordam - 10 Day Southern Caribbean Itinerary,
